

Please do not water down the NJ Do Not Call law. As a working single parent, I have little time with my daughter. Prior to this law, the phone rang non stop from telemarketers from 5:00 pm until 10:00 pm at night. It was disruptive, and incredibly frustrating.